having some name by which to designate the section in which they live, it has been suggested that a name be coined for it; and from the fact of there being numerous hifts in the district, which are already the sites of many beautiful residences and which are being rapidly covered with other handsome homes, it has been suggested that the name selected for this section be the Crown Hills district.

The terms University, Angelina Heights, Highland Park, Boyle Heights, East Los Angeles and Pico Heights are convenient designations for certain sections of the city, and the term Crown Hills would be an equally appropriate and convenient designation for another large, distinctive and rapidly growing section of this metropolis of Southern California.

Improvements for McGary Street.

W. W. Cockin buys of D. M. McGary. through the agency of R. W. Poindexter, eleven lots on East Ninth and McGary streets. The price paid for the property was about $5000. It is said that McGary street, between Eighth and Ninth, is soon to be opened and improved. It is in this neighborhood that the twenty-eight-acre tract is located, which was bought some weeks ago by the Los Angeles Street Railway Company as a site for its shops and power-house, and Charles M. Stimson and others are now building a number of cottages in this neighborhood to supply the demand for che-ap and attractive homes. It seems that the large improvements known to have been planned for the vicinity have given a new impetus to the sale of lots. Those lying west of Alameda and near the street-car lines are selling quite rapidly, and prices are steadily advancing.

Investments in Different Localities.

W. I. Hellingsworth & Co. sell for Dwight Whiting, to A. W. Rhodes, an unimproved lot, 40 by 117 feet, lying on the northwest corner of Seventh and Main streets, for $17,000. The same firm sells for Dr. Henderson Hayward, to George W. Walker, a lot, 100 by 165 feet, lying on the east side of Grand avenue, between Tenth and Eleventh streets. The price paid for the property was $7500. In is unimproved. The same agency has sold to Margaret B. Hodds, for $4000, an unimproved lot, 50 by 165 feet, lying on the west side of Olive, between Tenth and, Eleventh streets, These purchases were all made as investments, and the property in each case was well worth the price for which it was secured.

More Apartment Buildings.

R. P. Jennings has purchased of Mrs. Francis Zahn, through the agency of Shattuck & Scherer, for $5000, a lot lying on the southeast corner of Third and Figueroa streets, and having a frontage of $4 feet on the former by 120 feet on the latter street. Mr. Jennings buys as an investment, and is having plans prepared by Architect Charles E. Shattuck for a modern apartment building that will cost $6500 and will contain four six-room flats. The lots are all 50 by 150 feet, and are located on streets from Twenty-second to and including Adams. The new owners will build good dwellings upon some of the lots and will offer the others for sale as they stand.

On Hill Above Fourth.

D. C. Roberts has sold to E. S. Rowley, for $16.500, through the agency of S. K. Lindley, a lot, 30 by 105 feet, lying on the west side of Hill street, ninety feet north of Fourth. There is a two-story frame dwelling upon the property, which rents for $55 per month.

Judge Silent the Purchaser.

The local capitalist who is the purchaser of the Congregational Church property located on the southwest corner of Sixth and Hill streets, to which reference was made in this review last Sunday, is Judge Charles Silent. The sale was made through the agency of Edward D. Silent & Co., and, as previously stated, the property has a frontage of 132 by 150 feet, and the price paid was $77,500. About $40,000 of the purchase price was paid when the deal was closed. The rest is to be paid later. The Congregational Church has the privilege of using the property for some months, and it will probably build another house of worship at some time in the near future.

Buys Home on Belmont Avenue.

L. D. Drake buys of C. J. Vernon, through the agency of J. R. Taylor, three large lots located on the southwest corner of Council street and Belmont avenue, which are improved with a handsome ten-room, two-story frame dwelling. The price paid for the property was $10,000. Mr. Drake, who was formerly a resident of Whatcom, Wash., buys the place for a home, and will now make his permanent residence in this city.

Investments in a New Subdivision.

Sarah Graves has bought the north half of block 2 of Strong & Dickinson's Sixteenth and Washington etrect trazt. It contains thirteen lots, located on the south side of Seventeenth street between the land of Mrs. Mary E. Moore, on the east and Naomi street on the west. The price paid for the property was about $3575. Mrs. Graves buys as an investment, and will have a neat cottage that will cost between $1600 and $1500, erected upon each lot.

Buys Home for His Parents.

8. W. Lide buys of Weldon D. Whelan lot 'I, in block I, of the Kieruff & Voss subdivision of the Corvilla tract. It lies on the north side of Twentieth, just west of Oak street, is 71 by 140 feet, and is improved with a substantial dwelling-house. Mr. Lide buys the place as a residence for his parents, who are soon to move here from the East and make this their permanent home. The property was bought for $3750 through the agency of Wollner & Co.

The deed by which John H. Norton acquired from Mrs. Jennie Schroeder and Hugo Schroeder, for $36,000, part of lot 4, in block 25, Ord's survey, which lies on the west side of Broadway, between Seventh and Eighth streets, was placed on record during the week just closed.

F. Grass sells to G. A. Hart a hand-some residence, with lot upon which it stands, lying on the east side of Juliet street, between Adams and Twenty-fourth street.

Charles F. Fenner buys of Henry F. Backer, for $5200, a lot, $8 by 148 feet, located on the east side of Hope, between Court and Temple streets. The place is improved with a substantial dwelling-house.

C. H. Girdlestone writes to The Times in regard to the proposed extension of the Lakeshore boulevard, from Sunset boulevard to the Los Angeles River and beyond, that E. D. Goode of Eagle Rock, who is a county roadmaster, has practically secured the right of way for an eighty-foot boulevard from Sunset avenue to Alvarado street, through to Tropico and Pasadena, and that Mr. Goode says the Supervisors have promised a bridge across the river between Tropico and the city. Such a road would not only furnish a short and picturesque route to the Crown of the Valley, but would also open up a large area of attractive territory now entirely unsettled in the northern and northwestern parts of the city.

It is a story and a half cement and brick cottage, with basement, designed by Architect John C. Austin, and is a beautiful addition to the many specimens of the mission style of architecture that this locality affords.

The entrance to the building is across a circular projecting porch, 3x36 feet. This is surmounted by a balcony from which a fine view of the surrounding portions of the city is to be had. The house contains nine rooms, six of which are located on the first floor, and three on the second floor. The interior decorations are handsome. The windows are all of heavy plate glass. The building is heated by hot air, from a furnace in the basement, is lighted by both gas and electricity and is well provided with modern conveniences. The lot upon which it stands is 30x135 feet, and the grounds are nicely laid out in beds of choice flowers. The fimprovements cost in the neighborhood of $6500, and form a desirable addition to the other valuable improvements made upon Shatto street during the past year.
